AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA REGARDING CERTAIN AUSTRIAN BONDS

MESSAGE

FROM

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

TRANSMITTING

THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA REGARDING CERTAIN BONDS OF AUSTRIAN ISSUE DENOMINATED IN DOLLARS, TOGETHER WITH A RELATED PROTOCOL, BOTH SIGNED AT WASHINGTON ON NOVEMBER 21, 1956

MARCH 18, 1957.—Agreement and protocol were read the first time and the injunction of secrecy was removed therefrom. The agreement and protocol, the President's message of transmittal, and all accompanying papers were referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate

THE WHITE HOUSE, March 18, 1957.

To the Senate of the United States:

With a view to receiving the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification, I transmit herewith a copy of the agreement between the United States and the Republic of Austria regarding certain bonds of Austrian issue denominated in dollars, together with a related protocol, both signed at Washington on November 21, 1956.

I transmit also for the information of the Senate the report made to me by the Secretary of State regarding the agreement and protocol.

The agreement provides a practical means of resolving one of the residual difficulties of the postwar period in the financial field between the United States and Austria. I recommend that the Senate take early and favorable action with respect to the agreement and the related protocol.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER.

(Enclosures: (1) Report of the Secretary of State; (2) copy of the agreement and protocol.)

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, January 30, 1957.

The PRESIDENT,
The White House:

I have the honor to submit to you, with a view to transmission to the Senate for its advice and consent to ratification, an agreement between the United States and the Republic of Austria regarding certain bonds of Austrian issue denominated in dollars, together with a related protocol. The agreement and protocol were signed at Washington on November 21, 1956.

The purpose of the agreement is to provide a practical solution for a serious problem resulting from the looting in Austria and Germany, shortly after Soviet troops moved into those countries, of a large quantity of dollar securities of Austrian issue, both public and private, for which the trustees, fiscal agents, or paying agents are United States financial concerns. A substantial number of bonds of the same issues as those which were looted are owned by residents of the United States. No payments have been made by the issuers to holders of such bonds pending a solution of the problem. The United States entered into agreements for a similar purpose with the Federal Republic of Germany in 1953 (Treaties and Other International Acts Series 2793 and 2794; 4 UST 797, 885) to take care of the problem caused by the looting of a large quantity of dollar securities of German issue which had been reacquired for amortization purposes.

As in the case of the German bonds, bonds of Austrian issue had been acquired by the issuers for eventual retirement. Under the terms of the bond indentures, such retired bonds could only be canceled by the trustees, fiscal agents, or paying agents in the United States. Because of the war transmittal to this country was not possible and the bonds were retained uncanceled in Austria or Germany and therefore appear on their face to be valid obligations. A great many of these bonds are known to have been looted by Soviet military forces after the occupation of Berlin and Vienna with the likelihood that they have come into the hands of persons who may seek to negotiate them or to claim payment from the issuers.

In order to make certain that the Austrian issuers would not be required to make payment again on these looted securities which had previously been acquired by them or on their behalf, the Austrian Government caused lists of the serial numbers of the looted bonds to be prepared, and the bonds on these lists were declared invalid pursuant to Austrian Law No. 22 of December 16, 1953. That law further provides that holders of bonds so invalidated who deem themselves aggrieved have the right to present claims to the Austrian courts within prescribed periods of time, upon the expiration of which their claims would be barred.

The agreement with Austria signed November 21, 1956, includes an annex listing the bonds which have been declared invalid pursuant to Austrian law. The agreement affords holders of bonds who consider their bonds were erroneously included on the lists covered by the Austrian legislation an opportunity to present their claims within a reasonable period of time to an American-Austrian tribunal sitting in New York City. If the tribunal finds against the bondholder, he may apply to a United States district court for consideration of the question. If the tribunal or the court finds in favor of the bondholder, he will be given valid bonds in exchange for the ones improperly listed.

Article I of the agreement provides for establishment of an American-Austrian tribunal to consist of a member appointed by the United States, a member appointed by Austria, and a chairman appointed by agreement between the two Governments. The chairman, who must be a citizen of the United States, will act only to give a decision in any case where the two members disagree (art. III). The seat of the tribunal is to be in New York City, but in exceptional circumstances sessions may be held elsewhere (art. IV).

Under article II of the agreement holders of bonds listed in the annex, who claim such bonds were improperly declared invalid, may submit them to the tribunal within 18 months from publication by the Austrian Government in newspapers or financial journals in the United States and Austria of appropriate notice regarding the invalidation of the bonds in Austria as required by article XII. The bondholder must be able to prove to the tribunal either that the bond was physically outside Austria and Germany on January 1, 1945, or that the bond was acquired by the holder prior to January 1, 1945, or in a chain of lawful acquisitions traced back to the owner of such bond on that date, provided it had not been acquired by or on behalf of the issuer or by the German Government or one of its agencies, unless such bond was reintroduced into circulation prior to May 8, 1945, by or on behalf of the issuer, the German Government or one of its agencies.

If the tribunal finds in favor of the bondholder, the issuer is required to deliver a valid bond to the tribunal in exchange for the bond submitted, and this valid bond is then delivered to the bondholder.

If the tribunal finds against the bondholder, it notifies all parties of its finding and the reasons therefor and promptly returns the bond to the holder.

Article V provides for adoption by the tribunal of reasonable regulations and procedures for determination of cases.

Article VI specifies procedures to be followed by the tribunal for the protection of the parties in interest. These procedures include (a) prompt notification of parties in interest whenever a bond is submitted for determination, and opportunity for the issuer to be heard and to present evidence; (b) investigation of the facts, such investigation to be made part of the record, with both parties given opportunity to submit rebuttal evidence; and (c) notification to the parties of the tribunal's proposed finding and the evidence on which it is based, with opportunity for the parties to submit additional evidence. Without being bound by technical rules of evidence, the tribunal must accept any evidence it deems to have probative value; for example, it may accept bank statements, brokers' statements, and affidavits. Witnesses before the tribunal may be sworn. The tribunal may request additional evidence, and it may hold hearings on its own motion. It is required to hold hearings at the request of any party in interest.

Under article VII, the tribunal must consider an Austrian invalidation decree as controlling in the absence of other evidence, but if other evidence is received the tribunal need give the decree only such weight as it deems justified by the circumstances.

Article VIII deals with the bondholder's right of recourse to a United States district court in the event that the tribunal finds against him. Court proceedings must be brought within 4 months after notice of the tribunal's determination has been mailed to the claimant. Members of the tribunal may not claim immunity from service of process issuing from such proceedings. They must comply with any judgment, order, or decree that the court may issue. A certificate issued by the tribunal pursuant to a judgment, order, or decree of the court shall have the same effect as a certificate issued by the tribunal upon its own finding that a holder is entitled to a valid bond.

Rights of enforcement in the bonds listed in the annex become barred upon expiration of an 18-month period of limitations (art. IX), unless the time is extended by the two Governments (art. XV).

Former holders of bonds listed as invalidated, or their successors in interest, may apply under the terms of article XI to the Restitution Commission in Vienna for a decree to the effect that they were deprived of their bond within the meaning of the Austrian restitution laws, regardless of whether the deprivation took place in or outside Austria. A finding by the Restitution Commission in favor of the applicant entitles him to a valid bond, to be issued within 90 days, bearing a different serial number and equivalent in every respect to the bond of which he was deprived.

Holders and former holders of bonds listed in the annex are assured of timely and adequate notification of the action required of them to secure a determination of their rights under the agreement (art. XII). Notices must be published by the Austrian Government in newspapers and financial journals in the United States and Europe within prescribed time limits after the agreement enters into force. Such notices are subject to approval by the United States Government.

The Government of Austria will pay the entire cost of implementing the procedures under the agreement for determination of bondholders' rights (art. XIII). This includes costs of notification, printing and distribution of lists of the bonds involved, compensation of the members and chairman of the tribunal, and other necessary expenses of the tribunal.

Legal and other expenses of bondholders found entitled to a valid bond will be reimbursed by the Austrian Government in the amount of 10 percent of the face amount of the bond.

The Austrian Government also agrees to make available for transfer the dollar exchange necessary to meet these obligations as they become due.

Information regarding the bonds listed in the annex will be furnished to any interested person who applies to the Austrian Embassy in Washington or the Austrian Consulate General in New York (art. XIII, par. 4).

Definitions of terms are provided in article XIV.

If the operation of the agreement appears likely to impose hardships on the United States or its nationals, or nationals of other countries, or if it proves to be impracticable or unworkable, the United States Government may so inform the Austrian Government. The latter agrees by article XV to take action to eliminate such hardships or make the program practicable or workable. In particular, the time limit for filing claims will be extended if the United States Government requests an extension before the end of the 18-month period.

Article XVI requires that the agreement be ratified and provides for its entry into force upon exchange of ratifications.

The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany undertook in the German Debt Settlement Agreement, signed at London February 27, 1953 (Treaties and Other International Acts Series 2792; 4 UST 443), to assume financial responsibility for certain payments on Austrian dollar bonds falling due during the period of the anschluss. Accordingly, it was deemed necessary to obtain German concurrence to the present agreement. Such concurrence has been given subject to an agreed interpretation of certain parts of the agreement bearing on German liability. These agreed points, which are entirely satisfactory from the standpoint of the United States and Austrian negotiators, are set forth in the protocol to the agreement. The protocol is an integral part of the agreement and requires ratification together with the agreement.

The agreement was circulated in draft form to the trustees and paying and fiscal agents concerned, to the Foreign Bondholders Protective Council, and to the Securities and Exchange Commission for their comments. Such suggestions as were received were carefully considered by the negotiators and appropriate modifications made in the agreement. As signed, the agreement has the concurrence of these organizations as well as the general support of the New York financial community.

At the outbreak of World War II, the Securities and Exchange Commission requested brokers and dealers to refrain from effecting transactions in securities covered by the agreement and this request is still in effect. It is anticipated that after the agreement has been ratified and has become effective, brokers and dealers will be able to resume trading in valid Austrian securities but not in those securities which are listed in the annex. The Austrian issuers are prepared to resume payment on valid securities as soon as the agreement is in effect.

The significance of the agreement is not limited to those who hold the bonds and those who issued them. The agreement will assist Austria in restoring its position in the world's financial community and will help to build up confidence in international financial obligations.

It is hoped that the agreement and protocol will be given early and favorable consideration by the Senate.

Respectfully submitted.

JOHN FOSTER DULLES.

(Enclosure: Agreement and protocol regarding certain bonds of Austrian issue denominated in dollars.)

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA REGARDING CERTAIN BONDS OF AUSTRIAN ISSUE DENOMINATED IN DOLLARS

WHEREAS there are outstanding several issues of bearer bonds of Austrian debtors (both public and private) denominated in American dollars which are payable in the United States and for which there are corporate trustees, fiscal agents or paying agents in the United States (which bonds are herein called "Austrian dollar bonds"); and

WHEREAS a certain number of these bonds were acquired by or on behalf of the issuers for eventual retirement, or immediately before or during World War II were acquired by or on bahalf of the German Reich (Deutsches Reich), the Reichsbank, the Konversion Kasse fuer Deutsche Auslandsschulden, or the Deutsche Golddiskontbank, which bonds were not reintroduced into circulation by or on behalf of the issuer, the Government of Germany, or one of its said agencies; and

WHEREAS the bonds in question were never canceled in any way or presented for cancellation on the official records of the trustees, fiscal agents or paying agents, and therefore appear on their face to be valid obligations and are carried on such records as still outstanding; and

WHEREAS many of these bonds were stolen or disappeared in Germany or Austria during the hostilities of World War II or immediately thereafter; and

WHEREAS some or all of the various bonds described above may have fallen unlawfully into the hands of persons who will seek to negotiate them or to make claim against the debtors, trustees, fiscal agents or paying agents, or otherwise profit from their illegal acquisition; and

WHEREAS any payment on those bonds which are now held unlawfully would necessarily reduce the amount of foreign exchange or other funds available to make payments to legitimate holders, a large number of whom are nationals of the United States; and

WHEREAS any payment on those bonds which are now unlawfully held after having been acquired for eventual retirement, and which no longer represent valid and proper obligations of the issuer, would also be inequitable to the Austrian debtors; and

WHEREAS the free and open trading in the United States of all Austrian dollar bonds is impeded by the uncertainties arising from the situation described above; and

WHEREAS pursuant to Austrian Law No. 22 of December 16, 1953, the Government of Austria on various dates in 1954, commencing on February 1st, published in the "Amtsblatt zur Wiener Zeitung" lists of numbers of the Austrian dollar bonds as recited in Annex A of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS Austrian Law No. 22 provided in effect that bonds of the type described in the second recital shall be deemed extinguished provided that such publication is made, but that holders thereof deeming themselves aggrieved shall have the right to present their claims to the Austrian courts within prescribed periods upon the expiration of which their claims would be barred; and

WHEREAS it is the desire of the contracting parties that all holders of Austrian dollar bonds who deem themselves aggrieved by the

Austrian legislation referred to above shall have an adequate opportunity, in addition to that already provided by law, to present their claims before an appropriate and convenient tribunal; and

WHEREAS for the reasons set forth above it is desirable that reasonable periods of limitation be provided for the assertion of such claims, upon the expiration of which the bonds listed in Annex A shall no longer be enforceable; and

WHEREAS it is desirable to establish a proper basis and appropriate procedures for accomplishing the foregoing objectives;

NOW, THEREFORE, the United States of America and the Republic of Austria have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

1. The two Governments hereby establish jointly a Tribunal for Austrian Dollar Bonds, hereinafter referred to as the Tribunal.

2. The Tribunal shall consist of two members and a Chairman. One member shall be appointed by the Government of the United States, the other member by the Government of Austria, and the Chairman (a citizen of the United States) by agreement between the two Governments.

ARTICLE II

1. Holders of any bonds listed in Annex A who claim such bonds were improperlyd eclared invalid may submit them, for a determination of their rights to valid bonds, to the Tribunal within eighteen months from the first publication of the notice prescribed in Article XII of this Agreement or such further time as may be provided pursuant to Article XV. A holder who submits a bond to the Tribunal shall submit therewith evidence to establish that such bond meets the requirements of paragraph 2 (a) or 2 (b) of this Article.

2. If, upon consideration of all pertinent evidence submitted by the holder or otherwise received by the Tribunal with respect to any bond submitted to it pursuant to paragraph 1, the Tribunal is satisfied either

(a) that, on January 1, 1945, the bond was located outside the borders of Austria and Germany as they existed on December 31, 1937, or

(b) that the bond was acquired by the holder prior to January 1, 1945 or in a chain of lawful acquisitions traced back to the owner of such bond on January 1, 1945, provided that the bond had not been acquired by or on behalf of the issuer or by the Government of Germany or one of its agencies, referred to in the second paragraph of the Preamble, unless such bond was reintroduced into circulation prior to May 8, 1945 by or on behalf of the issuer, the Government of Germany or one of its aforementioned agencies, the Tribunal shall make a finding to that effect and shall certify the holder of such bond to be entitled to a valid bond of the same issue and denomination bearing a serial number not appearing in the list contained in Annex A hereof and having attached thereto coupons of the same payment dates as those submitted by the holder. A copy of such certificate shall forthwith be furnished to the bondholder and the issuer. Upon such certification, the issuer shall, within such time and in such manner as the Tribunal may determine, cause such valid bond to be delivered to the Tribunal in exchange for the bond submitted to the Tribunal, and the Tribunal shall deliver such valid bond to the holder.

3. If, upon consideration of the evidence before it, the Tribunal is not satisfied that the requirements of paragraph 2 (a) or 2 (b) have been met, it shall make a finding to that effect and notify all parties in writing of such finding and the reasons therefor. The Tribunal shall thereupon promptly return the bond to its holder.

ARTICLE III

All decisions and findings of the Tribunal shall be by joint action of its two members if they are in agreement. If they are not in agreement, they shall refer the matter to the Chairman, whose decision or finding in such case shall constitute the decision or finding of the Tribunal.

ARTICLE IV

The seat of the Tribunal shall be in New York City in the State of New York. The Tribunal shall maintain an office at which there shall be a duly appointed agent of the members and the Chairman for service of process in the cases referred to in Article VIII. The Tribunal may, in view of exceptional circumstances, hold sessions elsewhere.

ARTICLE V

The Tribunal shall adopt reasonable regulations and procedures for the determination of cases with regard to bonds submitted to it.

ARTICLE VI

1. The Tribunal shall promptly notify the parties in interest whenever a bond listed in Annex A has been submitted for a determination of the holder's rights. The issuer shall be given an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence.

2. For the determination of the issues referred to in Article II the Tribunal may make such investigation as it considers necessary to ascertain the facts. If such an investigation is made, the Tribunal shall reduce the results thereof to writing which shall constitute part of the record. Both parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to rebut any evidence resulting from such investigation.

3. The Tribunal before making any finding under paragraphs 2 or 3 of Article II shall notify the parties in writing of its proposed finding and the evidence upon which it is based and give them reasonable opportunity to submit additional evidence.

4. The Tribunal shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence and shall accept any evidence submitted to it which it deems to have probative value regarding the situations described in paragraph 2 of Article II. In particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Tribunal may accept bank statements, statements of security brokers or dealers, and affidavits. Witnesses before the Tribunal may be sworn.

5. The Tribunal may request additional evidence beyond that submitted to it.

6. The Tribunal may hold hearings on its own motion and it shall hold hearings at the request of any party in interest.

ARTICLE VII

1. An invalidation decree by an Austrian court with respect to any bond shall be considered by the Tribunal:

(a) in the case of a holder claiming under paragraph 2 (a) of Article II, as evidence, that such bond was inside Austria or Germany on January 1, 1945;

(b) in the case of a holder claiming under paragraph 2 (b) of Article II, as evidence, that such bond was acquired by or on behalf of the issuer, or by the Government of Germany or one of its agencies before January 1, 1945 and was not reintroduced into circulation prior to May 8, 1945 by or on behalf of the issuer, the Government of Germany or one of its aforementioned agencies.

2. In the absence of other evidence such invalidation decree shall be controlling. If, however, other evidence is submitted or received, the decree shall be given only the weight which the circumstances surrounding its entry justify in the Tribunal's judgment.

ARTICLE VIII

The members of the Tribunal are authorized and bound not to claim any immunity from service of process issuing from any United States District Court in proceedings brought by any holder of a bond listed in Annex A to determine whether the requirements of Article II have been met. Such proceedings must be brought within four months after a registered letter giving notice of the determination of the Tribunal has been mailed to the claimant at the last address furnished by him to the Tribunal. The Tribunal shall notify the issuer of the pendency of such action by registered mail. The members of the Tribunal, including the Chairman, will comply with any judgment, order or decree that such Court may issue in such proceedings. A certificate issued by the Tribunal pursuant to any such judgment, order or decree shall have the same effect as a certificate issued pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article II.

ARTICLE IX

All rights of enforcement of the bonds listed in Annex A shall be barred:

(a) if submitted to the Tribunal, eighteen months after final determination of the Tribunal under Article II or after final decision by the Court in proceedings referred to in Article VIII, or

(b) eighteen months after the first publication of the notice prescribed in Article XII, or

(c) eighteen months after the original maturity date of the bond, whichever is later, unless such time is extended by the two Governments in accordance with Article XV.

ARTICLE X

All holders of bonds submitted to the Tribunal in accordance with Article II shall be informed of the provisions of Articles II, IV, VI, VII, VIII and IX.

ARTICLE XI

1. Former holders of any bond listed in Annex A or their successors in interest as determined by the present Austrian Restitution Laws may apply to the Restitution Commission at the Landesgericht for Civil Matters at Vienna for a decree against the bond debtor to the effect that they were deprived of their bond within the meaning of the Austrian Restitution Laws. This application and a second application for the issuance of a valid bond as provided in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be filed jointly and no later than eighteen months from the first publication of the notice prescribed in Article XII of this Agreement or such further time as may be provided pursuant to Article XV.

2. In determining whether the applicant was deprived of his bond within the meaning of the Austrian Restitution Laws it shall be immaterial whether the act of deprivation took place in or outside Austria.

3. If the Restitution Commission finds that the applicant was deprived of his bond within the meaning of the Austrian Restitution Laws it shall certify this fact in its decree and, pursuant to the second application, it shall adjudge the bond issuer liable to issue to the applicant within 90 days from the date of the decree a valid bond which shall bear a different serial number and which shall be equivalent in every respect to the bond of which the applicant has been deprived; the second application shall be denied, however, to the extent that payments were made by the bond debtor in accordance with regulations in force at the time and accepted by the creditor.

4. Neither the issuance of bonds of the Reichsanleihe 1938, Series II, by way of exchange in accordance with the offer of indemnification of the German Reich Government made to owners of Austrian bonds, of October 25, 1938, nor the issuance between March 8, 1938 and April 8, 1945 of Reichsmark bonds by Austrian corporate or municipal debtors in exchange for dollar bonds will, for the purposes of this Article, be considered as having deprived the former owner of his bonds within the meaning of the Austrian Restitution Laws unless the exchange was brought about by direct duress against the former owner.

ARTICLE XII

1. In order to assure that holders of bonds listed in Annex A, as well as former holders of such bonds and their successors in interest, are given timely and adequate notification of such action as is required of them to secure a determination of their rights under this Agreement, the Government of Austria shall cause publication of an appropriate notice. The notice shall state the name of the issuer and trustee or fiscal agent and a description of the issue of each of the bond issues referred to in Annex A. The notice shall also recite that certain bonds of the issues so listed have been invalidated by decrees of Austrian courts in proceedings duly brought for that purpose, or by statutory law of Austria. It shall state from whom information may be obtained regarding the specific serial numbers of the bonds so invalidated and it shall set forth the procedure whereby holders of such bonds and former holders or their successors may have their rights determined and, in appropriate cases, receive valid bonds, and it shall state the time limit within which claimants must act. The exact contents of the notice and its size and form shall be subject to approval by the Government of the United States prior to its publication pursuant to paragraph 2 of this Article.

2. Publication of the notice shall begin simultaneously within one month from the entry into force of this Agreement in at least fifteen newspapers or financial journals in the United States and in five newspapers or financial journals in Europe. The selection of these newspapers and financial journals shall be subject to the approval of the Government of the United States. Publication of the notice shall be made on three different dates, within a period of 90 days.

3. The notice shall be published again on three different dates in three newspapers or financial journals having a general circulation in the United States, the last publication to be not later than one month before the expiration of the eighteen-month period prescribed in Article II, paragraph 1, and Article XI, paragraph 1.

ARTICLE XIII

1. The Government of Austria agrees to pay the entire cost of implementing the procedure prescribed by this Agreement for the determination of the rights of holders of bonds listed in Annex A including, in particular (but without limiting the generality of this provision):

(a) the costs of giving notice as required by Article XII, including the costs of printing and widespread distribution of the lists of bonds involved;

(b) the compensation of the members of the Tribunal and of its Chairman, as agreed upon between the two Governments;

(c) office rent, salaries of employees and other necessary expenses of the Tribunal.

2. The Government of Austria agrees to pay to any holder of a bond listed in Annex A who is found as a result of proceedings referred to in Article II or Article VIII to be entitled to a valid bond an allowance for legal and other expenses in the amount of 10 percent of the face amount of the bond.

3. The Government of Austria agrees that it will make available for transfer the dollar exchange necessary to effectuate the payments of its obligations under this Article as they become due.

4. The Government of Austria agrees that, upon request of any interested person to the Austrian Embassy, Washington, D. C., or the Austrian Consulate General, New York, N. Y., information regarding bonds listed in Annex A, including the specific serial numbers, will be made available.

ARTICLE XIV

1. The term "bond" or "bonds" in this Agreement shall be deemed to include the appurtenant coupon or coupons of such "bond" or "bonds".

2. The term "party in interest" in this Agreement shall be deemed to include the issuer of bonds involved, any trustee, any paying or fiscal agent with respect to such bonds, and any party who either holds a bond listed in Annex A or who may be liable on such bond.

ARTICLE XV

The Government of Austria agrees that if appropriate representation is made by the Government of the United States that the operation of this Agreement appears likely to impose undue hardships upon the United States or its nationals, or nationals of other countries, or otherwise proves to be impracticable or unworkable, the Government of Austria will take action to eliminate such hardships or make the program practicable or workable. In particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the eighteen-month period for the filing of claims described in Article II, paragraph 1, and in Article XI, paragraph 1, shall be extended if the Government of the United States so requests before the end of the eighteen-month period.

ARTICLE XVI

1. The present Agreement shall be ratified and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged at Vienna as soon as possible.

2. The Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the exchange of ratifications.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned representatives duly authorized thereto by their respective governments have signed this Agreement.

DONE at Washington, in duplicate, in the English and German language, both texts being equally authentic, this twenty-first day of November, 1956.

PROTOCOL

At the time of the signing of the Agreement between the United States of America and the Republic of Austria Regarding Certain Bonds of Austrian Issue Denominated in Dollars, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries, duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have agreed on the following interpretations of the aforesaid Agreement:

1. The agencies of the Government of the German Reich mentioned in Article II, paragraph 2, item (b) and in Article VII, paragraph 1, item (b) are in particular considered to be the agencies mentioned in the second paragraph of the Preamble.

2. The Federal Republic of Germany is to be considered a party in interest in the meaning of Article VI, paragraph 1, if and in so far as it has assumed obligations under the Agreement on German External Debts, signed at London February 27, 1953, to effect payments due in respect of bonds which are presented.

3. The issuance of bonds of the Reichsanleihe 1938, Series II, by way of exchange in accordance with the offer of indemnification of the German Reich Government made to owners of Austrian bonds, of October 25, 1938, will not, for the purposes of Article XI, be considered expropriation within the meaning of the Austrian Restitution Laws, unless the exchange was brought about by direct duress against the former owner.

4. The measures reserved by Article XV, except the extension of the deadline provided by the second sentence, require the consent of the German Federal Government in so far as such measures affect obligations of the Federal Republic of Germany.

This Protocol shall constitute an integral part of the Agreement to which it relates and shall be ratified together with that Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned representatives duly authorized thereto by their respective governments have signed this Protocol.

DONE at Washington, in duplicate, in the English and German language, both texts being equally authentic, this twenty-first day of November, 1956.
